Kathleen FitzPatrick

MSW, MPA, LMSW, LCSW

Kathleen is a certified social worker specializing in child and adolescent mental health, as well as working with disadvantaged populations of all ages. She has worked as a mental health consultant in a variety of community settings with Cretella Associates in Western New York since 1994.

Kathleen has trained in Restorative Justice through Partners in Restorative Initiatives (PiRI) and is a certified Community Conferencing facilitator. She has volunteered with the Juvenile Accountability Conferencing (JAC) Program in the Rochester City Schools with Tom Dwyer through the Rochester City Police Department. She has served as an educational trainer for Cretella Associates and the Wayne Finger Lakes BOCES. Kathleen is currently a social work consultant for Grace Urban Ministries, offering a variety of social work services to a disadvantaged population and assisting with the development of programs. In this capacity, Kathleen has initiated the Women's Issues Task Force to develop community support for addressing the needs of women re-entering the community post-incarceration.

Kathleen is certified in Mind-Body Medicine by Dr. James Gordon's Center for Mind-Body Medicine, Washington, D.C. and has trained in Qigong with Donald Londorf, M.D. L. Ac. Kathleen is also a Certified leader of Dances based on Samuel Lewis's Dances of Universal Peace and a Representative of the Sufi Order International, a spiritual path dedicated to the unity of religious ideals. She holds a Black Belt in Karate-do and is the mother of two adult sons.
